[Salutation]:

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) issued a report, "Right Wing Extremism," dated April 7, 2009. This report insinuates that "returning military veterans," "groups and individuals that are dedicated to a single issue, such as opposition to abortion or immigration," those "rejecting federal authority in favor of state or local authority," and many others are potential domestic terrorists.

Two trademarks of totalitarian police states are to target "undesirables", and to assign guilt for thoughts — as well as actions not yet taken. This DHS report is an unjust attack upon innocent people based upon their beliefs and experiences. I happen to be a/an: [circle all that apply]

I hereby instruct you to represent me, by taking immediate, meaningful action to rectify this disturbing injustice. Specifically, I want my views/background to be added to the DHS's laundry list of perceived undesirables.

People who appreciate freedom stand together against oppression and harassment. Hopefully, millions of Americans will join me in making this DHS report as meaningful as my local phone directory.

Sincerely,
